

Mary Herrmann

Named Managing Director, Executive Coaching Practice
BPI group

BPI group is pleased to announce that Mary Herrmann has joined the firm as Managing Director, Executive Coaching Practice. BPI group, with Chicago as its North American headquarters, is a leading global management and human resources consulting firm that helps clients create shared success between their organizations and their people.

Ms. Herrmann has over 20 years of experience in assisting organizations in developing more effective leaders and their teams. In her new role, she will act as both an executive coach to senior executives and lead BPI group's North American senior executive coaching practice.

During her career, Ms. Herrmann has worked across a variety of industries including financial services, non-profit foundations and universities, transportation, restaurants, hospitality, advertising and marketing, consumer goods, healthcare, manufacturing and engineering.

Before joining BPI group, Ms. Herrmann was a Principal at a national human capital consulting firm, where she established and grew the Executive Coaching practice. Prior to that, she served as president, founder and owner of Executive & Professional Coaching, helping C-suite executives become more effective and influential in their roles. Those experiences enabled her to develop and refine her unique, results-driven and pragmatic coaching approach.

Ms. Herrmann has also worked in several key HR roles in association management, insurance and advertising. Her experience includes launching an HR function from scratch and smoothly guiding a company through a large merger to avoid productivity decreases and voluntary turnover.

Ms. Herrmann has an M.S. from Loyola University's Institute of Human Resources and Industrial Relations, and a B.A. from Northern Illinois University. She is also a graduate of Corporate Coach University in Colorado Springs, Colorado, and a member of the International Coach Federation.

She resides in Hinsdale, Illinois, with her husband of twenty-five years, Dan, and children, Dan and Emily.
